Murder in Benton County (Update)

Otterbein: Indiana State Police at Lafayette are requesting assistance in finding the taxi company or shuttle service that would have possibly given Steven R. Farrell a ride from the airport.

Steven R. Farrell is wanted in the death of Christine R. Craig who was shot to death in Benton County. Craig confronted Farrell on a county road in Benton County and when she returned to her vehicle, Farrell shot her in the right shoulder while she was sitting in the passenger front seat. A family member drove her to a gas station in Otterbein, IN where she died from her wound.

On Friday, the 27th of November at approximately 8:40 pm, information has been received that Farrell appeared to have left the silver 2008 Toyota Tundra Pickup truck in the red parking lot of the Indianapolis International Airport in Indianapolis, IN. At approximately 9:07 pm on the same day, information was received that Farrell appeared to be getting into a white minivan type taxi or shuttle van from the level of the terminal where passengers are picked up. The names of neither the owner of the van nor the numbers on the side of the van are known. If a taxi company or shuttle service knows of a pickup from the airport at that time, please contact the Indiana State Police Lafayette Post at 765-567-2125 or 800-382-7537, and ask for Senior Detective Bryan Harper or leave a contact number that Harper can make contact with you.

Anyone with information on or the whereabouts of Steven R. Farrell, can call the WETIP HOTLINE – 100% ANONYMOUS – 24 hours a day at 1-800-78-crime or 1-800-782-7463.

A picture of Steven R. Farrell will accompany this release.
